

The 5th Workshop on Bioresources Management of Myanmar

Supported by Kyoto University Program

"Promotion of International Collaboration on Bioresources Management in

Date & Time 9:00-12:10, February 18 (Thu), 2016

Venue S128 Seminar Room, Main Building,
Graduate School of Agriculture, Kyoto University

9:00-9:05	Mamoru Kanzaki (Professor, Graduate School of Agriculture, Kyoto University)	Opening Address and Explanation of the PICBiRMA
9:05-9:15	Introduction of Participants
9:15-9:45	San San Aye (Professor, Department of Botany, University of Yangon)	Resources of Myanmar Medicinal plants and Antiamoebic Activity of Euphorbia hirta L.
9:45-10:15	Thanda Aye (Assoc. Prof., Department of Botany, University of Yangon)	Varieties of Myanmar's Mango and Off- season Fruit Production of Mangifera indica L. cv. Sein-ta-lone
10:15-10:30	Coffee Break
10:30-11:00	Mie Mie Kyaw (Lecturer, Department of Zoology University of Mandalay)	Sustaining Water Resources and Aquatic Ecosystem Management for Fish Conservation
11:00-11:30	Yazar Minn (Assistant Director, Forest Research Institute, Forest Department)	Mating System of Teak ( Tectona grandis Linn. f.) in a Clonal Seed Orchard Revealed by Microsatellite Markers
11:30-12:00	Rosy Ne Win (Assistant Director, Permanent Secretary Office, Ministry of Environmental Conservation and Forestry)	Analysis of the Shifting Cultivation Practices, Teak Regeneration and Soil Nutrients in Fallow Lands in Bago Mountains, Myanmar
12:00-12:10	Closing Address

After the workshop, lunch meeting is held at S118 Seminar Room (12:10-14:00). This is for free discussion. Please join the meeting too. Please bring lunch box.

If you need lunch box, it is available upon the request. Price will be 500 yen/box. Please let me know until February 16. Mamoru Kanzaki